Keynotes and Workshops

Tailored to meet your group's specific needs

This Woman Knows

Women regardless of age, skin color or financial status can struggle with self worth. They don't see their own value let alone, value the gifts they possess. This program is based on Lisa's book, This Woman Knows, and helps women acknowledge their worth and cultivate their gifts and talents.

What If I Look Stupid? Unlearning Keeping Quiet

Part of the nonsense taught to women is this idea that we should keep quiet. That we shouldn't speak up for ourselves. That we're not supposed to ask for what we want. This presentation helps audiences unlearn the lies, find the courage and develop the skills to confidently ask for what they want and need.

She Leads

Series of presentations for female leaders. Lisa speaks on effective communication, marketing and branding, rocking your next presentation, self-care/avoiding burnout and collaboration as a tool for growth.

Other workshop topics include:

Death of a Nice Girl, The Martyr, The People Pleaser & The Super Hero, Personal Branding: Putting Yourself Out There.
